PLEASING POACHES

This is rather a pleasant way of adorning poached eggs for luncheon. Arrange the poached eggs on a bed of grated cheese in a fireproof dish. Sprinkle on them a little melted butter, salt, and pepper, and cover them with Bechamel sauce enriched with cream and a few mushrooms. Sprinkle some more grated cheese over the sauce, a little more melted butter, and brown in the oven.

OUR LONDON NEWS LETTER

PRINCE OF WALES AND SEAMEN: DEATH OF ARCTIC EXPLORER: NOVEL "MOTOR RACING": WOMEN IN PUBLIC LIFE

LORD BURCHLEY PROPOSED CHAIRMAN OF JUNIOR IMPERIAL LEAGUE

(SPECIAL AIR-MAIL SERVICE)

Women in Public Life.

LONDON, Oct. 30. It is rumoured that the election of Dame Beatrix Hudson Lyall to the chairmanship of the London County Council is quite possible next year. She is the present vice-chairman of the Council and is undoubtedly a lady of amazing energy and application. She gave up her summer holiday this year in order to occupy the time in visiting personally thirty of the institutions administered by the Council. Should this be the case, it would be an astonishing mark of the height to which women have risen in the public life of England. There is certainly no post at present held by a woman which could be comparable to the chairmanship of the L.C.C.

The National Liberal Club.

On November 16, fifty years ago the National Liberal Club came into existence and on that date this year the Club will celebrate its jubilee by a reception followed by a concert and dance. Lord Gladstone of Hawarden, the president of the club, and Lady Gladstone, supported by the vice-presidents and the trustees, will receive the members and their guests, thus giving a happy example of continuity. There are several portraits of the "Grand Old Man" in the club, but his chief memorial is the unique Gladstone library which he himself opened.

Reading and Needlework.

parties is the latest vogue in the West-End of London. The Queen has always had her ladies read to her while she was thus engaged and the Hon. Mrs. Drogo Montagu, the Hon. Mrs. Ronald Balfour, and Lady Bridget Guinness, as a result of the habit, have had to deny a rumour that they contemplate starting a book club where the "book of the moment" would be read by one of the members each week. Reading also accompanies the tapestry work of society leaders in the art, like the Countess of Strathmore, the Duchess of Roxburghe and Lady Betty Balfour.

A Russian Fortune.

Mr. W. M. Cazalet, the racehorse owner and well-known millionaire, who has just died at the age of 67, made his fortune out of Russia. He was the chief shareholder in William Miller & Co., an English firm, which, in addition to exporting coal and herring to Russia, had an immense chain of subsidiary concerns in the country itself. These included the great Nova Steam works for the manufacture of candles and the famous Kalinkin brewery and mineral water factory. These concerns were seized by the Bolsheviks and the loss involved must have been tremendous, but, as part of the profits in the past had always been remitted to England, Mr. Cazalet remained a rich man. He was probably the only man in the world who made and kept a Russian fortune. Both his son and daughter are M.P.'s.

Fifty Years' Salvation Army Work.

Commissioner David C. Lamb was entertained at a luncheon on October 24 in Goldsmiths' Hall to celebrate his 50 years' association with the Salvation Army. Mr. J. H. Thomas presided and amongst the guests were men and women of every political and religious shade of thought met to honour the man whose life was transformed by a casual visit to a Salvation Army hall in Aberdeen 50 years ago. October 24 was also the 44th anniversary of Commissioner Lamb's marriage.

Arctic Explorer Dies at 35.

Capt. P. M. H. Lemon who was the wireless operator and signals expert with the British Arctic air route expedition of 1930-31 has just died in London after a long illness. During the expedition to Greenland, under Mr. H. G. Watkins, who was drowned in Greenland, Capt. Lemon, who was only 35, was in charge of wireless communications which were conducted on short waves. He accompanied Courtauld and Watkins in a 600-mile journey along the west coast of Greenland, where they carried out important survey and mapping work, the survey being carried out for a large part of the way among drifting ice.

The Prince of Wales and the Seamen.

The Prince of Wales, Master of the Merchant Navy and the Fishing Fleet, presided at the festival dinner of the Missions to Seamen at the Mansion House, London, on October 24. He wore the badge of Master of the Honourable Company of Master Mariners. In proposing the toast, "The Missions to Seamen," the Prince said: "Ninety-nine per cent of the British seamen do not come into the category of either scallywags or drunkards. The merchant seaman is the man on whom we rely for our everyday needs, but sometimes, quite wrongly, he gets a bad name. It is human to get into trouble, and we all get into trouble one time or another, and if the seaman gets into trouble it is usually when he gets (Continued on Page 2.)

"REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM"

CHARMING ROMANCE FILM AT THE KING'S

In "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" Hollywood has gone back to those unsophisticated days when Mary Pickford was "the world's sweetheart." Now Mary Pickford was one of those very fine artists who won intellectuals as well as the ordinary average person for the film, and helped to place the film where it is to-day both as an industry and as an art.

But the film, especially with the advent of the talkie, wandered far from Sunnybrook Farm. As Mary Pickford herself said some three years ago to our representative, during her visit to Hong Kong, "we are dealing with a new technique. For a time we are bound to be crude and heavy-handed." So, the talkie became the medium for crooks and oodles, and while it soon outgrew early crudities it is only strong enough to give a sample and natural story like "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." There are no heroes, and the film portrays the quiet lives of quite ordinary people—an impulsive girl, a struggling doctor, a sharp spinster and the village atheist. A delightful feature is the scenery—typical country scenery of hills, meadows, hedges and homesteads, common alike to England and the older states of America. The picture shows familiar things, life and not the nightmare of cinema New York or country-house-plus-mystery. If a cynic would say, it all sounds like a Marcus Stone picture, the answer is that a large house thoroughly enjoyed a well-told, witty and well-acted story.

Marian Nixon scores a real triumph as Rebecca, and Ralph Bellamy's quiet acting made him an attractive hero. Louise Closer-Hale was magnificent as Aunt Miranda, a right royal figure from the Victorian age, who spends her time being "not amused." Mae Marsh has a small part, but Alphonse Ethier gives a fine study of that rough old villain Mr. Cobb. The picture can be in all sincerity (Continued at foot of next Column)

"THE DOOMED BATTALION"

CENTRAL

"The Doomed Battalion" is a story of the Austro-Italian campaign of the Great War. It was directed by Carl Laemmle for Universal Pictures and has been produced on the scale of the old spectacle film that D. W. Griffiths made famous.

The story is well told and grips the attention from the opening scene to the finale. The earlier shots showing village scenes, with the ringing of the church bells, to announce not a festival but the declaration of war are particularly effective. Generally war is ushered in amid popular enthusiasm and hysteria. Here another view is taken, and the shadow of grief and party falls at once.

There are fighting scenes amid the rigours of mountains, and the action largely turns on the attempt of the Italians to dig a tunnel, through the mountain of Collalto, on top of which a strong Austrian force was stationed.

The Austrians got news of the Italian plan and Florin Dimai (Luis Trenker) the hero asks his superior officer for permission to go into the village where the Italians were stationed to try to find out when the mine would be fired. He nearly loses his life trying to pass the Italian lines, but he returns safely to his comrades who are able to evacuate just before the explosion takes place.

This in brief outline is the story, but there are hundreds of little incidents which grip the imagination, and there is meaning in the whole conception of the picture.

The "Doomed Battalion" is not perhaps a cheerful picture but it is one which you will not easily forget and which—whether you are pacifist or die-hard you ought to see.

recommended, not as a permanent diet, but as a welcome innovation.

There is also, by the way, an excellent news reel of the Olympic Games.

"MAY BE IT'S LOVE"

"May be it's Love" now showing at the Queen's Theatre, is an excellent film, and no wonder with Joan Bennett, Joe E. Brown and James Hall in the principal parts. The story centres round a football match between Upton College and Parsons College. The Upton College Eleven hasn't defeated the Parsons team in twelve years, and because of this the Trustees of Upton insist that President Sheffield must resign if Upton does not beat Parsons in the coming season's game.

Nan Sheffield (Joan Bennett) the president's daughter and a co-ed of the School and Speed Hanson (Joe E. Brown) the only star of Upton's eleven overhear the trustees' threat. Speed hits upon a plan and outlines it to Nan. The plan is for Nan to flirt and recruit a real "all-American" team for Upton. Tommy Nelson (James Hall) enters Upton under an assumed name (having already fallen in love with Nan) and is forced to work his way through college because his wealthy father thinks he is at Parsons. Eventually Tommy discovers that Nan has lured each of the boys to play on the team by pretending that she loved him. (Continued at foot of next Column)

INDECOROUS MODERN DANCES

STRINGENT FRENCH BAN

La Rochelle.—Dancing in the Department of the Vendee is being regulated by stringent rules promulgated by the Prefect.

All dances to which the public are invited must be under severe supervision. Indecorous dances are forbidden, and it is illegal for a person under eighteen years of age to take part in a public ball.

"All scandalous noises, violence, profanity, and immodesty," are prohibited in dance halls, while intoxicated persons are forbidden entrance. Each mayor is empowered to fix the hours during which dancing is legal, but it is suggested that midnight be closing time. Special authorisation for masked balls must be secured.

The ecclesiastical authorities are co-operating with the Prefect in enforcing these rules, which have been put into force in an attempt to fight against the "disastrous immoral consequences of indecent modern dances," it is declared.

CLAUDETTE COLBERT'S MILK BATH
IN DE MILLE'S "SIGN OF THE CROSS"

The "distinction" of being the only film actress in the world ever to have a milk bath goes to Claudette Colbert, who recently lived the life of a luxury-loving Roman empress for a motion picture scene.

Miss Colbert, playing the part of Empress Poppaea, wife of Nero, spent several hours disposing in a bath comprised of one thousand gallons of milk. The bath was created by Cecil B. DeMille for a scene in his Paramount spectacle, "The Sign of the Cross."

Not since Anna Held took her famous milk bath years ago has there been a scene such as the one witnessed in Hollywood.

Milk from 500 asses, which, in one of the spectacular highlights of "The Sign of the Cross," on historical fact. Research discloses that Poppaea, Empress of Rome in 64 A.D., took a bath every day in milk provided by 500 asses. Not only was her palace supplied daily with fresh milk, but she insisted on taking the 500 asses along whenever she went on a journey, in order that she might have in her favourite bathing fluid even when touring the Roman hinterland. The sudden demand for milk brought unexpected business to local dairies. DeMille received the benefit of unusually low prices now prevailing in Southern California and at the same time provided a bath at a cost not much greater than a specially mixed liquid which might have been had for the actress' skin. When filming of the bathing scene was completed the milk was turned over to a large stock farm for feed.

Tommy's father hears that his son is at Upton, and playing in the match and comes down to make trouble, a most amusing scene follows between the irate father and Speed. After the match, won of course by Upton 19 to 7, the inevitable happy ending comes with all explanations accepted, both by the angry father and suspicious son and Nan wrapped in the loving embrace of her Tommy.

IDLE SHIPYARDS

LOWEST NEW TONNAGE
TOTAL ON RECORD

London, Oct. 14.—Shipbuilding in Great Britain and Ireland now stands at a lower figure than any hitherto recorded by Lloyd's Register.

The returns for the quarter ending Sept. 30 show only 238,433 tons of new vessels in hand, this being less by 178,055 tons than the total of a year ago. Moreover, the present figure includes about 150,000 tons on which work has been suspended, so that the amount of tonnage actually being constructed does not exceed 89,000 tons.

Foreign construction is also down, the present total of 602,034 tons being 106,000 tons less than the work in progress three months ago. Not for twenty-two years has the output of foreign yards reached such a low ebb. The following tonnage is building in the five leading countries:

Italy	127,989
United States	194,703
France	109,285
Germany	80,770
Sweden	73,480

Assuming that none of this work has been suspended, it will be seen that Italy, the United States, and France are all building more tonnage than Great Britain, whose annual current output is only that of thousands tons greater than that of Germany and Sweden respectively. During the last three months only 10,327 tons were commenced in Great Britain, this being the lowest figure ever recorded. In the same period 52,572 tons were laid down abroad.

So far as this country is concerned, the motor ship appears to be losing ground, for of the 238,433 tons in hand all but 24,984 is represented by steamers. On the other hand, the motor ships built in Great Britain (385,060 tons) exceed the steamers total by 107,486 tons.

You know that period of the year, both now and again in the Spring when our climate is uncertain. Some mornings and evenings are cold, but not cold enough to need an overcoat, yet an extra garment is needed.

For this "in between" season a woollie, or pull-over, with or without sleeves, meets the requirement.

Made in Scotland of pure wool in a delightful range of colours and designs, and being "Scotch" Knit they are sturdily made to withstand hard wear. The very thing, too, for wear after a strenuous round of Golf or a hard set of Tennis.

FASHION NOTES FROM LONDON

WHAT THE CHIC WOMAN SHOULD WEAR

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 30.
The colour now being worn more than any other is a soft doekin brown, trimmed with fox of more or less the same shade, or astrakhan. Thus a brown woollen crepe dress goes with a straight brown velvet coat and a small felt hat.

Informal Dinner Dress.

For a simple or informal dinner dress, lace is a good standby and in the new "waxed" or "cra" patterns, allied to the dull wool-lace design, it is admirable for cinema gowns. Metal threads vary the lace selections. Black Chantilly, dull and light, is a pleasing alliance with waxed and shirred guipure. Striped metal threads in many colours, mounted on chiffon or net, are very effective when made up in the dress. Spangled and beaded lace, too, add variety.

Evening Gowns.

The new velveteen that looks like velvet is being used for many evening gowns. Its appearance is beyond criticism; and in addition, it has the advantage of being a warm garment. Alternative Black materials for evening wear are satin and soft lame brocades—always "safe" and smart.

The Hat Problem.

Hats at the moment present a problem. If a hat is very shallow at the back it has to be adapted for those who find it unbecoming; and while it is pleasant after a period of severe and untrimmed shapes, to return to trimmed hats, trimming is not free from difficulties. Many hats which look well enough when worn with big fur collars cease to look well without them. Some of the more becoming shapes show a Russian influence and suit older women; others, with the title of the nineties and a trimming over one eye, are like bonnets without the wings, and demand carefully waved and dressed hair. All the new hats, with the exception of a few odd-looking new tams and jersey and facecloth caps, appear to have some kind of trimming; and all are turned up or shallow at the back to show the hair.

The Loose Coat.

The loose coat, swinging from raglan or saddle shoulders and looking very smart and dashing, is in great vogue this autumn and is, of course, for sports, country or morning wear. It can be made of any one of the new season's materials, and worn over a well-tailored frock of a material to match, or one in definite contrast. Ribbed velvet and ribbed wool are used a great deal for these coats, which go over frocks of a similar material in a much finer weave, the cording sometimes being as fine as whipcord. The two weaves go well together and look extremely attractive. The coat has no fastenings, but a generous fold-over front and a tied scarf collar that keeps it cosy when necessary.

Newest Evening Wrap.

The newest little evening wrap is a raglan dolman, with very full sleeves gathered into tight wristbands, and the waist gathered into a tight belt. The wearer has rather the appearance of a little balloon, which is quite in the mode if she happens to be slim.

A FESTIVAL OF DOLLS

INTERESTING SHOW AT
JAP. EMBASSY

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Modern and ancient Japan seemed to have met on Oct. 27 in the Japanese Embassy, where a private view of the forthcoming show of ceremonial dolls was given of those belonging to the household of Mme. Matsudaira. These dolls are never played with, but are kept for display in every Japanese home at the girls' feast of dolls on March 3, and the boys' feast of the iris and carp on May 5. They are family heirlooms handed down for generations. The girls' display on five shelves was the larger and included richly dressed figures of the Emperor and Empress, ladies-in-waiting, musicians, Imperial Guards, and three beautiful little ivory-faced dolls symbolising anger, joy and sadness. Although the boys' display was smaller, it was equally symbolic, and together with its miniature suit of ancient armor and sets of weapons were figures of the legendary hero Kintaro—a fine warrior with a truly terrific sword—and of tiny Momotaro, found in a peach and evidently the equivalent of our English Hop-o'-my-Thumb.

"MESSRS. UNIVERSAL PROVIDERS"

LEAGUE UP AGAINST VESTED INTERESTS

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
Under the title of "Messrs. Universal Providers," by Leslie R. Aldous, the League of Nations Union releases the following article:

On the eve of the special meetings of the League of Nations to deal with the Lytton Report, it has been revealed in the House of Commons that arms and munitions are still being sent to the Far East. Almost simultaneously, the sub-committee of the World Disarmament Conference, which is trying to find means of regulating the manufacture and trade in arms, has come up against enormous difficulties. The deputation of religious leaders, who recently presented their views to the Prime Minister in London, are understood to have drawn attention to the danger of vested interests in armaments. Lord Cecil said more than once that the wreckers are at work in Geneva. Under the present system of private manufacture, armament firms are universal providers. Some of them have been supplying weapons indiscriminately to both China and Japan during the Manchurian dispute. A consignment of "pianos" destined for Japan was found to consist of 2,000 crates of chemicals. Unusually, however, no attempt is made to disguise the nature of these cargoes. We have ample evidence that the famous Skoda works in Czechoslovakia, controlled by French interests, have made huge profits out of the Sino-Japanese trouble. For example, 15,000 bombs and 2,300 gas bombs have been sent to Japan, shipped from France, Poland and other warlike supplies have been the United States. It must be said that the British share in this traffic, although it exists, is relatively small. After the Great War, exports invited by the League of Nations to study this problem reached a series of interesting conclusions. War scares have been fomented by armament firms. Attempts have been made to bribe Government officials. One country has taken advantage of these conditions to send up the price of war material. Through control of the Press, public opinion has been influenced in favour of heavy armaments. The latter statement is no exaggeration. In Paris, for example, the "Comite des Forges," a combine including the French armaments firms, control no fewer than seven daily papers. Little wonder that the League of Nations is up against vested interests which have so far defied its efforts to bring about control of the arms traffic. Many, unfortunately, are ready to listen to the plausible arguments of the armaments magnates. They are "making work," they claim, forgetting that the wars which they encourage will inevitably increase the world's burden of unemployment. Public opinion in every country should realise the truth, and provide the League with moral support in establishing an international front against one of the most insidious evils of modern times.

STUDY OF LIGHTNING DANGERS

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 24.
A movement for the study of the dangers of lightning and of the means for averting them has begun in South Africa, under the supervision of a strong main Committee, the chairman of which is Dr. Randall of the Witwatersrand University. Since South Africa has more lightning and a higher mortality rate from this cause than any other country on earth, the plans of the electrical engineers are regarded as of much importance.

The direction and path of storms, the areas specially afflicted with lightning, the nature and incidence of casualties, medical effects the growth or diminution in the number of thunderstorms, the collection of photographs, the manner in which flashes enter buildings, the experience of motorists, the physiological effects of thunderstorms on nervous persons and animals, are all part of the research programme.

CONFERENCE COSTS

LONDON, Oct. 20.
The Financial Secretary to the Treasury, Mr. Horne-Bellish, told the House of Commons on Oct. 25 that he understood the expenditure for the respective Votes of the Ottawa Conference, the Lausanne Conference and the British Delegation to the Disarmament Conference amounted respectively to £12,000; £5,000; and £27,500.

MAN WHO SANG FOR PASSPORT

WORLD-CHAMPION OPTIMIST

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 27.
The world's champion optimist, Eric Malpas, a 37-year-old Australian bank clerk, left England on Oct. 26 with less than £1 in his pocket with the intention of making his way across Europe, Asia (including Japan), and America, and keeping himself by singing in the streets. He said: "The authorities would not give me a passport at first, for they said I could not maintain myself in a foreign country, but I sang 'The Rose of Tralee' in their office and I got my passport." He further added: "In 1901 I toured Australia, New Zealand, and Tasmania, covering 10,000 miles on my bicycle."

A UNITED STATES OF THE WORLD

WILL A NEW REPUBLIC ARISE?

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 26.
United States newspapers give particulars of a prize essay competition that has been originated by the New History Society of New York, open to the students of universities and schools throughout Europe. The subject is "How can the youth of the universities and schools contribute to the realisation of a United States of the World?" The age limit is 30 years and the papers, which may be written in French, English or German must not exceed 1,200 words in length. First, second and third prizes will be awarded of $300, $250, and $100. Among the judges will be Lord Cecil, Professor Gilbert Murray and Professor Einstein. Essays may be sent in from Nov. 1, 1932 to Feb. 1, 1933. What a vast theme! Mr. Wells anticipated a time, probably about the year 2,000, when there would be a synthesis of all the peoples now speaking the English language, and then would arise a new Republic, "dominating the world," with its head and centre somewhere between Chicago and the Atlantic. One of the conditions of the competition is that "the papers will be judged according to the vision of the writers and the feasibility of the plans."

FIGHT AGAINST SLAVERY

PERMANENT COMMITTEE SUGGESTED

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 30.
The proposal to create a permanent committee of experts to study and encourage the progress of the campaign for the suppression of slavery in all its forms is one which has long been advocated by the British Government. It has now been unanimously accepted by the League of Nations Assembly and an advisory committee of seven experts will be appointed by the Council and will meet for the first time in 1934. The Assembly have also approved the report drawn up by a Committee of which Lord Lugard was a member. This report gives a survey of the present situation all over the world, including British Colonies, China, Abyssinia and other parts of Africa and the districts bordering on the Red Sea and the Persian Gulf. The Mut-Tai system, slave-trading, slave-raiding, domestic slavery and other forms are described and suggestions made for future improvements.

Mr. Cecil Cox of Wood Green, paid his ten shillings for the five millionth licence and was immediately surrounded and congratulated by high officials of the Post Office. They are very pleased because the 5,000,000 mark was the figure aimed at in the campaign against wireless "pirates." The Post Office was so excited about this new record that they persuaded the B.B.C. to invite Mr. Cox to broadcast.

At Christie's first sale on November 24 the fine collection of Chinese porcelain formed by Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Pratt, of 50, Post St., London, who are giving up their London house, will be dispersed. Amongst the collection are several fine sacrificial cups of the K'ang Hsi dynasty, a number of important Ming jars, and a remarkable pair of K'ang Hsi wine ewers enamelled in famille verte with flowers of the four seasons.

HOOD TORPEDOED EIGHT TIMES

DURING FLEET MANOEUVRES

(Special Air-Mail Service)

LONDON, Oct. 24.
The Home Fleet of the British Navy was at its moorings in the Firth of Forth on Oct. 23, resting after the great Trafalgar Day "battle." During the "scrap" our biggest battle cruiser, Hood, was torpedoed eight times and the battleship Nelson twice. They were not in danger, however, as the torpedoes were fitted with harmless practice heads instead of deadly war heads. These "hits" were made to invite Mr. Cox to broadcast.

CHINA AND ITS CAPITALS

NANKING'S CLAIMS DISCUSSED IN LIVERPOOL

Professor P. M. Roxby, of Liverpool, addressed the Manchester Geographical Society on "Peking and Nanking as capital cities of China" at the Geographical Hall, Manchester. After tracing the advance of culture into China, always through the north-west, with Chang'an, now Singan, as the first and principal capital city, Professor Roxby sketched the later movement of capital status between Peking and Nanking. Referring to the latest transference of the Government from Peking to Nanking, he said that Peking would remain the intellectual capital of China, though it had lost its political status. It was also the railway centre of China. If the great North-west were developed, as it might well be, Peking would be the natural focus-point. And Peking was a city of memories and immense prestige. But against these considerations were positive disadvantages as the capital of China.

Peking.

"Peking is dangerously near the Manchurian zone, which, as we know, is almost completely under Japanese control," he said, "and dangerously near to the area in which Japan, Russia, and others are concerned and tend to fight out their battles. From the Chinese point of view Peking is too thoroughly associated with foreign interests and control at present and foreign conquest in the past. What is more, it is very far away from the real heart of China and out of touch with the mass of its population and the merchant interests."

Advantages of Nanking.

Nanking, he said, was in the midst of China's agriculture, industry, and commerce, and in comparatively easy distance of Canton and Southern China. It was only six hours by rail from Shanghai, and he had no doubt that the whole problem of China depended to a large extent on the development of relations between these cities. If Nanking could come into creative contact with Shanghai and foreign and Chinese interests in Shanghai were reconciled the difficult problem of Chinese unity would be approaching solution. The success of the Nanking Government had been largely due to the co-operation of the Shanghai community. Between foreign merchants and the Chinese business world this spirit of rapprochement was certainly growing. There were enormous difficulties, but he believed that Great Britain would take the bold step of transferring her Legation from Peking to Nanking and really concentrate on trying to help showing that our one desire was that China should have an efficient, stable Government, the situation in China would be greatly improved.

Rome, Nov. 11.—Another transatlantic flight on a grand scale will be promoted, it was officially announced today, by the Executive of the Fascist Party, at the celebrations which are now being held all over Italy on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the March on Rome. Some time next year an Italian air squadron, commanded by Air Minister General Balbo and embracing twenty planes, will leave Rome in an attempt to cross the Atlantic in formation—flight on the Northern route similar to last year's sensational flight of an Italian squadron to South America.

drying an attack by destroyers, but whether they would have been fatal must be a matter of conjecture. Who won the battle, and how many of the destroyers would have been shot to pieces in real warfare, are also unknown. Many aircraft took part.

YACHTING

SECOND CRUISER
CHAMPIONSHIPCAPT. FOWKES WINS WITH TYPHOON

With regard to the 2nd Cruiser Championship Race sailed yesterday there was a good turn out of yachts for the start of the race.

Sea Lark V. with her scarlet hull and modern narrow sail plan, was first over the line fifteen seconds behind the gun leading Isis and Wanderer. The rest followed closely but U. and I. and Luana hung back to cross the line some minutes later; wise tactics sometimes in a long distance race for those in rear may profit by the shifts of wind observed on their competitors ahead.

From the start the course took the yachts immediately through the busiest part of the harbour where in the sunshine the white sailed fleet showed to advantage among the craft of mere utility.

Course:—(1) Discovery. (2) (S.) (3) Green Island (P.). (3) Stonecutters Island (S.). Distance:—24 miles.

Started at 10.05 a.m.

SATURDAY'S RESULTS

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP
ANKER CLASS

The new Anker class yachts were very much in evidence on Saturday afternoon when their first championship race was sailed over a course of 8.8 miles, the start being at 2.20 p.m.

Mr. Stanton, sailing Joss, was the first home, Artemis being second and Jan third.

The wind was light from the north-west. The boats started in a bunch, eight seconds late on the gun, Artemis bringing up their rear. Spinners were rigged to port for what appeared a reaching run to Channel Rock, but just before this mark the wind headed, and the fleet was eventually fished close hauled on the starboard tack.

The wind held pretty well until the last leg to Lyemmon Beacon when it fell calm, and those in the rear had a chance to catch the leaders in general bunching which occurred at this mark.

Alisa sailed by Major Lochner, was the first over the line in the "I" and "Y" Class race, reaching in a slightly stronger wind than the "A" Class had been favoured with ten minutes earlier. The reaching wind, however, headed near Channel Rocks and Wings, sailed by Mr. Malone, in a commanding position took full advantage of the shift and rounded the Rocks with a good lead which she, however, lost in the fluctuating winds at the end of the race.

In the "H" Class race, Rolla, sailed by Mr. R. Stock, was first over the line. Dorothea, sailed by Mr. Edward, came up with a good slant and finished first on handicap, as Rolla was unable to save her time on Dorothea.

Course:—(1) Channel Rocks (P.), (2) Kowloon Rock (P.), (3) Mark on Line (P.), (4) Lyemmon Beacon (S.). Distance:—9.8 miles.

SCOUTS v. Y. LADIES.

In their first hockey match this season, on Saturday, the St. Andrew's Troop of scouts defeated the "Y" Ladies by 5 goals to 1, on the Y.M.C.A. ground at King's Park.

The Scouts' team, opened their account through Bond, who scored with a neat shot. Shortly after MacNider went through to score the second goal. The ladies rallied and Mrs. Read scored from a pass from O. Dalziel, to reduce the deficit. Woolley netted the Scouts' third point.

In the second half, A. Fowler, who had been playing in goal, played full back, and proved a tower of strength. Good work by J. Henderson, on the left wing, saw Woolley find the net, to add the fifth point.

HONG KONG, NOVEMBER 21, 1932.

THE DISARMAMENT ISSUE IN EUROPE.

SIR JOHN SIMON's statement at Geneva of Great Britain's disarmament proposals was an impressive recapitulation and affirmation of earlier pronouncements. It is satisfactory to see no withdrawal from the position that Great Britain has gone to the limit of concession, and will do nothing unless adequate response is forthcoming from other Powers. If they will not, or cannot respond then the Cabinet, acting within the limits of existing treaties, will continue to take such steps as financial and technical advisers may declare expedient to secure the safety of the British Empire and its maritime communications.

While there has been, since the War, a genuine effort to secure world peace and disarmament, a strong, cross-current of Machiavellian statecraft has also been at work seeking to exploit this common desire of humanity in the interests of selfish and bullying nationalism. That great seaman Admiral Sir CHARLES MADDEN expressed this extremely well in his outspoken remarks about those who were trying to get the British Navy further reduced while giving nothing in return. The conflict of the two interests—the one genuinely working for the good of humanity and the other seeking the means of advantage—has been so intermingled that it is never easy to disentangle one from the other. A statesman like Mr. RAMSAY MACDONALD, whose wholeheartedness in the cause of peace cannot possibly be doubted, has had again and again to consider those sinister elements that are using the promises of genuine enthusiasts of their respective countries, merely as decoys.

It is often said by the more extreme militarists, "let each nation decide what armaments it requires and let it have them." A few platitudes about leaving the subject alone are then added. The plan is hypocritical nonsense. After allowing for policing forces and sufficient to guard the frontiers of colonies and dependencies from irresponsible neighbours, a nation's armaments depend solely on those of possible antagonists. From a strategic point of view a nation needs a force at least equal to that of an adversary in order to feel safe. In these days actual and direct defence against a neighbour is impossible. The only thing is to have such forces that will be able to inflict about as much damage as is likely to be inflicted. Modern progress in aerial warfare means that neither London nor Paris can be defended, but strategic equilibrium is maintained by the pleasant thought of the damage that would be done to both capitals, if France and Britain came to blows.

The sensible thing is that all civilised peoples should make a self-denying ordinance giving up these devastating toys, that they do not wish to use, but may use (just as children would use lethal weapons against each other) in moments of anger. Germany has, of course, been deprived of these weapons. Now, confident in a new-found strength, she offers the alternatives of a general abolition of armaments or of a defence of the restrictions imposed on her under the Treaty of Versailles. German nationalism has reached danger point and three courses are thus presented to the rest of Europe. 1. Real disarmament. 2. Re-arming of Germany. 3. A punitive expedition to prevent Germany re-arming. The first represents sanity; but it is

ANOTHER BOYCOTT INCIDENT

MOTOR-LAUNCH CATASTROPHE

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

SWATOW, Nov. 15.

Owing to the renewal of activities on the part of the Boycott Committee, another incident has recently taken place. A Chinese woman bought some twenty dollar's worth of buttons from a Japanese firm and no sooner had she entered the street with the parcel than she was intercepted by one of the pickets. Here the drama commenced. An employee of her firm at once went to bargain with him and offered $30 "tea money" if he would let the woman go. But the picket wanted $30. Instead and, not coming to an arrangement, an altercation followed, the employee getting the worst of it. The trio were next brought to the headquarters of the National Salvation Association and an inquiry instituted. The woman was fined $50. for "trading with the enemy" and the buttons were confiscated. As to the employee, he was locked up for two days and made to parade the street with a fool's cap on his head. He had one consolation, however—his $50. were returned to him with an additional sum of $10. as compensation which the Committee ordered the picket to pay him.

Auspicious.

Last Saturday was observed as a general holiday, in honour of the birthday of the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen. All the government offices were closed, also the Customs House, the schools and the shops. Curiously enough the Post Office remained open as usual. The Chinese National Flag was prominently displayed everywhere and there were illuminations at night. A great deal of joy-riding was in evidence and hundreds flocked to the Park out of mere curiosity.

In the Commercial School there was an exhibition of art work by some of its students and many of the things shown were much admired by the public.

The students of the Kakchih schools had all crossed over to spend the day.

A Disaster.

A sad disaster occurred on the afternoon of that day, when a Chaoyang-Swatow motorboat overturned with a loss of some two hundred lives. The traffic was very heavy on account of the holiday and it happened that this launch was taxed to more than its proper capacity. The launch was approaching the Swatow wharf when a heavy list onto the port side was noticed and the vessel turned turtle. The water was not deep, and it is surprising so many people should have perished.

not easy. French fear of both Italy and Germany has been fanned by foolish, if understandable, hostility, and France has still an immense lead in armaments. She is not therefore readily disposed to relinquish her present advantage. The response in the highest quarters is not, however, unhelpful. The issue is further complicated by the fact that Western Europe has to keep a sharp eye on Russia, and a defensive alliance of the League Powers of Europe against Russia is a necessity of the present position. The re-arming of Germany in a spirit of hostility to France can have but one ending, and it is very certain that if France and Germany cannot compose their differences they will both be left severely alone and no Power will commit itself to diplomatic entanglement with either of them. As to the third course, it is hardly practical politics at this stage of world affairs.

A settlement of a vast problem cannot be expected in a day or at one conference. No doubt there will be compromise. Germany will get her armaments; the other Powers will make some concessions; and it will remain a gamble whether a half-armed Europe will have sufficient wisdom to keep out of wars over issues not worth (except to profiteers) one-tenth per cent. of the cost of the struggle.

Pearls.

In order to improve the price of pearls Japanese cultivators have held a bonfire of their inferior stock—valued at £3,000 in Tokyo.

Double Purpose.

Tommy asked John, a young schoolfellow, to tea. John, who came from a much larger house, said with surprise—

"What, have you only one room? We have a dining-room and a drawing-room."

"Oh, have you?" said Tommy, undaunted. "Well—we draw in the dining-room."

Oil From Red Sea Islands.

Specimens of petroleum recently discovered in the Dahlak archipelago, off the coast of Eritrea, have been landed at Naples and are being forwarded to the Colonial Office in Rome for examination.

It is now considered to be proved that there are rich supplies of petroleum in the Italian islands of the Red Sea.

And Who Remained.

In the House of Commons, during a debate on Prohibition, a member asked:

"Does the mover of the motion know that during the South African War fifty per cent. of the total population in a famous Scottish Regiment died?"

"You may think this is an exaggeration," he continued, "but I know the man who died."

A Study in Trousers.

It was Jack Hulbert who defined trousers as "plurals when you wear them; singular when you don't." Trousers in Russia are always singular. In the Soviet Paradise (men's) clothes are made by State factories in stock sizes and numbered. Russians who require a new suit first receive a permit proving that the old one is worn out, and then proceed to the general store. Here they are measured and then told their size. Invariably, if the coat fits, the trousers do not. Then begins the strenuous game of "swapping" garments.

That is why the appearance of men in Moscow is so comic. Either they wear suits that do not fit or else the coat and the trousers, are of different colour and material.

British Workers Purchase Mills.

Workers of Audley Hall Mills, Blackburn, Lancs., have decided to purchase three mills and run the looms on a co-operative basis, providing work eventually for 400 people. The mills, which were closed a year ago, contain more than 2,000 looms, and were to be sold by auction, but the workers and their friends have raised sufficient funds to get a first option on the purchase.

Mexico's Ruins.

Mexico City.—Continuation of federal control of archaeological ruins throughout the Republic of Mexico has been guaranteed by the Federal Supreme Court. As a result of the decision guaranteeing federal jurisdiction Senor Alfonso Caso, who discovered important ruins in Monte Alban, in the State of Oaxaca in January, is planning to resume his excavations.

Antarctic Air Patrol.

Plans are being drawn up for an expedition headed by M. Lincoln Ellsworth, and including M. Bernt Balchen and Sir Hubert Wilkins, to fly across the Ross Sea to the Weddell Sea. They propose to start from Dundee in November, 1933, and make their base on the ice barrier in the Ross Sea. Their primary object will be to discover whether the Antarctic is a single continent, and no attempt will be made to fly over the South Pole.

Modern Woman!

The modern woman is the wrong shape!—according to a doctor "late of the Indian Medical Service."

He declares that one cause of the high maternal mortality is the fact that we are "breeding from the wrong type of woman." He adds: "If one looks at a statue of Ashtar or a picture of a female figure by one of the old masters, one is struck by the general womanliness of the build," he writes, "but the modern ideal of female beauty seems to be a wide-shouldered, lean-framed, narrow-hipped, flat-chested, sexless creature."

"We can verify that by strolling along a modern sunbathing beach and keeping our eyes open."

The Doctor's Dilemma.

A hint on how legally to circumvent the law by a Renfrewshire doctor writing in The Times—

"I went into a chemist's shop and asked for a stick of shaving soap. The chemist said it was a half-holiday and he could only dispense prescriptions. I asked for a piece of paper and wrote out a prescription for 'one stick of shaving soap, to be used as required' and signed my name."

P.S.—I got my shaving soap at once.

There seems the germ of an idea here for a new disease.

Gay Hamburg.

Hamburg, which the Prince of Wales and Prince George visited after their stay at Stockholm, is the gayest of all German cities. It has a quarter where the "night-life" of the city is concentrated in one street. This is the famous Reeperbahn in Altona. The system has its convenience. It saves the traveller a considerable sum in taxicab fares. Hamburg has another advantage in the eyes of the British visitor. Everyone, from the official to the most important shipping magnate, speaks English. The Hamburgers themselves are the most English in character and appearance of all Germans.

Trunk With a Wheel.

A large variety of luggage trunks and cases especially made for passengers on sea cruises was recently shown in the National Leather Goods Show-room in the Textile Exchange, Ludgate Hill. This exhibition was arranged by a selling organization consisting of 18 of the principal British manufacturers of leather goods. The cruising requisites on exhibition ranged from simple trunks to comprehensive "sets," which include cabin wardrobe, suit-cases, hat-boxes, "last-minute" boxes, and even golf bags. The manufacturers have tried by the use of a great variety of colour in their goods to make it easy for prospective passengers to identify their luggage. One of the novelties shown is a trunk to one end of which a small wheel is attached, so that it can be easily propelled.

JAPAN AND MANCHURIA

WILL NOT CHANGE HER PRESENT POLICY

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

TOKYO, Nov. 20. EVIDENCE that Japan's attitude towards Manchuria has not changed is provided with the publication of Japan's observations on the Lytton Report, regarding which Count Uchida made the following statement: "We have not sent delegates to Geneva to argue but to lead the League to a true understanding of the complications of the situation in the Far East."

General Araki informally stated that: "Japan's observations are not intended to refute the report but to supplement the deficiencies and remove the misunderstandings of the League Commission." He added that the Manchurian problem is now settled as far as Japan and Manchukuo are concerned, therefore Japan is determined to pursue her settled policy whatever happens.

"WORLD ON A RAZOR'S EDGE"

WHAT THE LEAGUE HAS TO CONSIDER

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 20. "THE WORLD ON A RAZOR'S EDGE" is the description given by the Sunday Times regarding the problems at Geneva, with which the League of Nations is faced by the Japanese threat of withdrawal if the Lytton Report is approved and the future of the Disarmament Conference still undecided.

Mr. Wickhamstead in dealing with this subject says that if Japan withdraws from the Council, the Council and the Special Assembly will have to consider whether, and to what extent, the resolution unanimously passed by the Special Assembly on March 11, should be upheld and implemented by other members of the League together with the United States, since the resolution invoked the Kellogg Pact, and that a Japanese rejection of the Lytton Report, with or without Japan's withdrawal from the League might bring about a most serious situation, and the fate of the Disarmament Conference may depend on the firmness of the League in upholding the Lytton Report.

AMY BREAKS RECORD

CONGRATULATED BY H.M. THE KING

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 20. "I CONGRATULATE you on your splendid achievement and trust you are not too exhausted," was the message from H.M. the King received by Mrs. Amy Mollison at Cape Town when she awakened from a fifteen hour sleep after her record-breaking flight.

Amy, during a broadcast speech, which was relayed from London, said: "I chose the Cape route because, inter alia, I was anxious to test my capacity of endurance as I had never before gone without sleep for a day and a night." She was not sure, whether she could do it, but now she felt quite fresh and almost ready for a flight back to England.

Mrs. Mollison after a telephone talk with his wife to-day said there was a possibility that she may attempt to break the flight record from Cape Town to England, but he thought it unlikely.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

Tributes of Admiration.

RUSSBY, Nov. 19. Tributes of admiration from all over the world have reached Mrs. Amy Mollison in Capetown. Among them were messages from the Secretary for Air, Lord Londonderry and the Royal Aeronautical Society. Several world flyers, including Amelia Earhart and the French Amelia Earhart, are among those who expressed their admiration of a really remarkable flight. Although she had only five hours' sleep during the trip she made up for this last night by sleeping for 17 hours. Her De Havilland Puss Moth behaved magnificently throughout the trip and is still in perfect condition.

Radio Talk With Her Husband.

RUSSBY, Nov. 18. Mrs. Amy Mollison completed her great flight from England to Capetown at 1.30 G.M.T., thus establishing a new record for the 6,200-mile journey. Her time was four days, six hours, fifty-two minutes, the previous record, held by her husband being four days, seventeen hours, twenty-two minutes. A vast crowd assembled at Capetown to witness her arrival, and the airwoman was overwhelmed with congratulations on her magnificent achievement.

Within a few minutes of landing, she was in telephonic communication with her husband in London, who assured her of the personal pride he felt in her performance, which, he said, would probably do more to advance British aviation than any single flight had yet done. When Mr. Mollison suggested that she must be very tired after four days' flight, during which she had had only five hours' sleep, she said she was not too tired to go on talking.

Terrible Strain.

In a broadcast talk at Capetown, however, Amy said the strain of sleeplessness had been terrific. Referring to her experience on the journey, she said the worst stretch was from Duala to Benguela, flown by night.

Army's machine, the "Deceit Cloud," is a standard De Havilland Puss Moth cabin aeroplane, fitted with a Gipsy Major engine of 120 horse-power, equipped with special petrol tanks. Normally these machines carry tanks of 35 gallons capacity, but by utilising the space occupied by back seats for fuel tanks, the capacity was increased to 120 gallons, the range being increased from 650 to 1,850 miles.

Her route was the most direct possible, halts being made at Barotsa, Oran in Algeria, Gao, Niamey, Duala, Benguela and Mossamedes.

He was wounded both in the face and the neck and was rushed to hospital immediately after the outrage in a serious condition. Neither his wife nor his daughter were injured. The assailants of the Prison Superintendent escaped.

PRINCE IN NORTHERN IRELAND

SPLENDID WELCOME EVERYWHERE

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Nov. 18. THE Prince of Wales was received with tremendous enthusiasm to-day when he made a tour of inspection of some of the leading industries in Northern Ireland. The tour included a visit to the Lurgan Thread Mills at Lisburn, reputed to be the largest in the world, and to the world's greatest rope factory in Belfast.

He was also accorded a great welcome when he appeared at the Ex-Servicemen's Colony at Cregagh, on the outskirts of Belfast, and later, to the delight of 400 patients, he went round several wards of the Royal Victoria Hospital.

This evening he made a brief au revoir speech, which was broadcast in Northern Ireland and was relayed from English stations.

Back in London.

RUSSBY, Nov. 19. After travelling throughout the night, the Prince of Wales arrived in London early this morning. His visit to Northern Ireland had been an immense success and wherever he went he was received by all classes of the community with unrestrained enthusiasm. Twenty thousand people gathered in the Belfast Station last night to cheer him as he departed and chanted, "Come back, come back" to the tune of "Westminster Chimes." At all stations along the line to Larnie Harbour other crowds cheered him as he passed. From the harbour, in an important broadcast speech, he paid a charming tribute to Irishmen. In all his travels, in whatever climate and under whatever conditions, he said, he had always found Irishmen, and everyone who knew them liked them. He and they had many tasks in common. They liked horses and sport and a joke. As he had found in the streets of Hillsborough they were always ready for bit of fun. "It won't be my fault if I don't come back," he ended.

H.M. the King has telegraphed to the Governor of Northern Ireland, the Duke of Abercorn, his most sincere thanks to the people "for the warmth of their welcome accorded to my son and for their demonstration of loyalty."

The Prince has also telegraphed his thanks to all those who helped to make his visit so pleasant. Early next month the Prince is visiting South Wales and will tour through mining areas.

GERMANY'S NEXT GOVERNMENT?

HITLER'S BID FOR POWER

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, Nov. 19. Herr Adolf Hitler's interview with President von Hindenburg lasted an hour yesterday, the Nazis enthusiastically cheering their leader as he entered and left the Palace of the Emperor.

It is understood that the President reserved his decision and made no promises, but it is believed that Hitler urged that he should be given a chance to conduct the affairs of the country.

President von Hindenburg is interviewing the leader of the Bavarian People's Party, later, and then will confer with his advisers as to the next step.

It is expected that Hitler will confer with the Centre Party with a view to obtaining a coalition Government, supported by the two People's Parties and the Nationals. Nazi quarters declare they are satisfied with the result of Hitler's talk with President von Hindenburg, but refuse to say whether Hitler insisted on the Chancellorship.

In view of the fact that President von Hindenburg is seeing Hitler again next week, it is believed Hitler proved more tractable than in July last, when he demanded full control. There was even talk at that time that the Nazis might seize power by some sort of coup de main.

SHIPBUILDING RESEARCH TANK OPENED

MOST COMPLETELY EQUIPPED IN THE WORLD

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Nov. 18. MR. STANLEY BALDWIN to-day opened a new experimental tank at the National Physical Laboratory at Teddington, built at a cost of £25,000 to provide additional facilities for shipbuilding research.

It is 678 feet long and 30 feet wide and is equipped with apparatus for wave-making and for simulating rough water so that the weather conditions of almost any ocean can be reproduced.

The possibility of solving practical problems of design, by experiments on models, was first shown by William Froude in 1870 and the largest shipbuilding firms there-after erected tanks. In 1911, large tanks were built at Teddington for the use of British industry as a whole.

A propeller tunnel for the investigation of propeller problems was added later and with the new tanks now installed the equipment at Teddington is more complete than anywhere in the world. Experiments in the tanks are carried out with wax models and immense savings, particularly in fuel consumption, have been effected by the modifications in design suggested by these tests.

CIVIL WAR IN SZECHUAN

INDICATIONS OF EARLY TERMINATION

DEPRESSION IN EASTERN SHANTUNG

CITIES BURDENED BY ARMY TAXES

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

CHEFOO, Nov. 19. A feeling of the gloomiest depression exists in eastern Shantung, owing to the prospect of General Liu Chen Nien's forces who, apparently, are delaying their departure in order to make heavy levies upon each city they pass.

It is not thought that the withdrawal will have been completed before Christmas. Trade, meanwhile, is at a complete standstill.

JOHN GIALDINI GOES FREE

RECENT AMNESTY HELD TO APPLY

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

ROME, Nov. 18. THE sentence of five years' imprisonment passed in 1931 upon Gialdini in connection with the Hstry financial crash, was quashed by the Court of Appeal to-day, by the automatic application of the recent amnesty.

The court did not discuss the merits of the Gialdini case.

The courts have decided that the large sum of sequestered money belonging to M. Gialdini should be returned to him, but the whole sum will be withheld for the present in case of civil parties bringing some action.

Gialdini is now trying to regain the money immediately. He was sent to prison a year ago, at the same time Clarence Hatry, wealthy Jewish financier, was sentenced in England. Both were charged following the failure of their financial ventures, which ruined scores of persons but allegedly lined their own pockets. Gialdini was freed recently in the general amnesty of Italy.

NEW MENACE TO HARBIN

33,000 VOLUNTEERS THREATEN CITY

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

HARBIN, Nov. 19. ONE of the most important struggles in Manchuria is fore-shadowed in news stating that Japanese and Manchukuo expeditions from various points have started out to check the advance of 33,000 Volunteers who have taken up a line to the north-west of Harbin, in the vicinity of Paichuan.

This huge force of Volunteers is preparing to advance towards the Chinese Eastern Railway in semi-circular formation.

The Japanese and Manchukuo forces have a decided advantage, inasmuch as they are supported by Japanese bombing squadrons, whereas the Volunteers lack anti-aircraft guns and fighting planes, and are thus powerless to combat an attack from the air.

Japanese Headquarters declare that a Japanese success would clean up a large area in Heilungkiang, but the outcome is by no means certain.

BUDGET DEFICIT IN JAPAN

INCREASING APPREHENSION EXPRESSED

TOKYO, Nov. 14.—Increasing criticism and apprehension is being voiced regarding the financial situation in Japan, if the Cabinet persists in its present Budget policy of unlimited borrowing and filling the huge deficit by the issue of bonds.

Considerable discontent with the prospective Budget is reported to have been aroused in the Upper House and Privy Council circles over the week end. Political circles are expressing doubts as the Diet's approval of estimates. The Seiyukai Party seems inclined to criticize the Government for failure to agree to a larger sum for emergency relief.

Despite criticism, however, the House of Peers advocate a continuance of support of the Saito Cabinet in consideration of the fact that nobody else is more competent to steer the country through its present crisis.

Meanwhile, the papers warn the Seiyukai party that the present is not the time for bickering and intrigue, but counsel that the entire nation must rally behind those who to-day are guiding the destinies of the Japanese Empire.

Too Many Demands.

KYOTO, Nov. 14.—Premier Saito left Osaka by the 9.25 a.m. express last night.

Regarding the controversies over the Budget, he said the main items had already been settled leaving only the details that require some negotiations between the Finance Ministry and the various Departments. There had been too many new demands put forward by the several Ministries, which the Treasury was totally unable to meet, he said.

"The Budget for next year is a huge one, but this is unavoidable under the present circumstances. Every year there has been much trouble over the budget, which is very regrettable, and the Government should do all it can to have it passed as speedily as possible."

Regarding the unrest in political circles, there is no necessity for him to meet either of the Party leaders, also that he had no conversation on political matters with Governor Ugaki. He revealed, however, his wish to meet Prince Sajonji.

CASE OF GEORGE GLADKIH

FRENCH POLICE FILE APPEAL

SHANGHAI, Nov. 16.—Dissatisfied with the decision rendered by the Third Branch Kiangsu High Court, in which the appeal against the acquittal, by the Second Special District Court, of three Chinese gaolers charged with causing the death of George Gladkikh was dismissed, the French Police have now filed notice of a second appeal with the Supreme Court in Nanking; it was learned from court officials yesterday.

G. Gladkikh, Russian, was serving a week's detention sentence in the Second Special District Court's detention house in June when he died. A report was soon afterwards received by the French Police from Simon Gladkikh, a brother of the deceased, alleging that his brother's death had been due to the negligence on part of the Chinese gaolers who failed to give medical treatment to deceased despite the (summing 1220 to 1007 to prisoning)

M.C.C. VERSUS AN AUSTRALIAN XI.

BRADMAN DISMISSED FOR 36

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MELBOURNE, Nov. 19. THE M.C.C. continued battling to-day on a good wicket, and the remaining two wickets added 44 runs to the overnight total of 239 for 8. The Australian XI scored 201 for 0 after lunch.

Though the sky was cloudy a crowd of 15,000 witnessed the conclusion of the English innings. G. O. Allen, the Middlesex all-rounder, used the long handle to good effect in collecting 48 which included seven boundaries.

Playing a difficult half hour before lunch the Australians scored 18 without loss. After lunch, however, 23,000 saw the visitors' attack gain the upper hand and 9 wickets fell for 108 runs. Harold Larwood, the Nottingham bowler, being in devastating form. He dismissed the incomparable Don Bradman when he looked set for a century after scoring 36. The record-breaking Australian stepped in front of a straight one from the fast bowler.

At the fall of the ninth wicket Larwood had taken 4 for 52. L. P. O'Brien, the Victorian opening batsman, was dismissed when four short of his half century. Scores:—
M.C.C.: 239 (R. E. S. Wyatt 29, Sutcliffe 87, Leyland 38, G. O. Allen 48, R. K. Oxenham 5 for 53, H. Nash 3 for 39).
Australian XI: 216 for 9 (L. P. O'Brien 46, Don Bradman 36, Larwood 4 for 52).

"COME-BACK" COLLAPSE OF A STAR

MADGE TITHERADGE IN DRAMA OF NERVE STRAIN

MADGE TITHERADGE, the famous British actress, arriving in England to return to the stage now that her husband is no longer a millionaire, incurred a heavy attack through excitement in a West-end hotel.

Sir John Weir, the specialist, had to remain in attendance for three hours. Miss Titheradge, lay in a state of collapse in a room which her friends had turned into a bower of flowers to welcome her on her "come-back."

The drama of her return to England, determined to recapture her leading position on the stage, was told by her husband, Mr. Edgar Park, whom she married secretly in America four years ago.

"It's been one thing on top of another for the last two and a half years," he said.
The first two years of our married life were an uninterrupted bliss. Then I had a motor-car which broke my leg bones, thigh bone, and seven ribs. Madge nursed me for eighteen months. After that Wall-street crashed, and with it, Madge coped with that ruin for a year, and then decided to return to the stage, and sailed, all in a week.

Collapsed in His Arms.

"I guess the relief of finding herself back in London among the old friends of her profession, and the stage so near, has been too much for her to bear. The mapping of a tension can be like that. We arrived in England, and Madge had so many friends to meet her. I heard a violent knocking, and on opening my door, found my wife, who collapsed in my arms."

"I carried her to a couch, but even as I placed her did not think she could last. Her heart could not bear thudding two yards away."

Mr. Chu Hou Hsiao, chief of the International Bureau of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, arrived at Shanghai from Nanking last week and is shortly leaving for the South Asiatic Islands to inspect the various Chinese Consulate-General there. Mr. Chu will be away from the country for about three and half months and he will call at such cities as Singapore, Rangoon, Calcutta and Penang.

fact that he was very ill when sent to the gaol.
Legal proceedings were then instituted by the French Police against three Chinese in charge of the court's detention house. After a number of hearings, the three accused were acquitted by the Second Special District Court. An appeal was filed with the Third Branch Kiangsu High Court, but it was dismissed.

WEEK-END SPORTING ACTIVITIES

GLENEAGLES SETS A NEW RECORD

BIG DIVIDENDS PAID AT SATURDAY'S RACES: SEVERAL FAVOURITES BEATEN

POLAR STAR CONFOUNDS PUBLIC OPINION

(BY "MORNING DEW")

EIGHT RACES WITH EIGHT CLOSE FINISHERS WAS THE RESULT OF THE SPORT PROVIDED BY THE JOCKEY CLUB'S FOURTEENTH EXTRA RACE MEETING, WHICH WILL CERTAINLY GO DOWN AS ONE OF THE BEST DURING THE YEAR 1932. THE SPORT OPENED WITH A RECORD-BREAKING RUN BY GLENEAGLES, WHO IN SPITE OF ALL HIS SPEED, WAS ONLY ABLE TO WIN BY HALF A LENGTH.

POLAR STAR CONTRARY TO PUBLIC OPINION, PROVED HIMSELF A VERY WORTHY SPEEDSTER AND ANNEXED THE AUSTRALIAN EVENT WITHOUT MUCH EFFORT, ALTHOUGH HE WAS CARRYING TOP WEIGHT AT 170 POUNDS.

A FEATURE OF THE DAY WAS THE EXCELLENT DIVIDENDS PAID ON SEVERAL OF THE PLACED PONIES.

DON WINS GRIFFINS CUP FROM LUNAR STAR

Don won the Hong Kong Griffins' Cup from Lunar Star and Navy Hall. The success of Don was not as much due to Mr. G. Roza's good riding as to the indecision of Mr. Pan in the straight. The pace was a very slow one, Mr. Roza pushing the field. Lunar Star was content to wait within a couple of lengths of Don and made no effort to catch up over the first mile. When the two ponies turned into the straight Don was still a couple of lengths to the good but Lunar Star had not up till then been asked for an effort. When Mr. Pan pushed him, he responded beautifully, and then Mr. Pan made the mistake of trying to get through on the rails, although there was plenty of room on the outside. When he had got right up to the heels of Don, and Lunar Star was just beginning to wedge himself in between Don and the rails, Mr. Pan changed his mind and pulled Lunar Star out to run on the outside. The decision cost him the race for Lunar Star was thrown out of his stride and Don managed to stay in front for the rest of the journey, which was about a hundred yards. So badly was Lunar Star affected by this move that Navy Hall, coming up with a burst of speed almost took second place.

Bright Star.

Just before this race however, Mr. Pan was responsible for an excellent piece of judgment when he rode Bright Star to victory. The pace was very fast due to Boxing Eve (with Mr. Charles on the saddle) trying to do the runaway act, but before the flag was reached, Boxing Eve took over the lead and looked very promising when he led into the straight, but the pony found the pace too hot for him and went under to both Bright Star and The Tiger in the last furlong. Bright Star won by two lengths.

Polar Star's Success.

The "Star" stable seemed to have plenty of luck on Saturday, as Polar Star, contrary to public opinion as to his speed over a short race, won the Australian event in the excellent time of 1.23.1, accounting for The Giraffe, the favourite, who led most of the way. Wotin was a big disappointment here, for after drawing the second position it looked very much as though this speedster with a light weight had every advantage as far as flying start was concerned, but the pony must have been crossed early on and Mr. Harriman, his jockey was soon to pull him right back and then to take him along on the outside, where he ran very well. The misfortune at the start spoiled all his chances of success. A screen erected by the Naval Cricket team, I think, prevents the public from seeing the starts of six furlong races, and arrangements should be made to remove it. Lucy Glitters, as predicted, put up a very good race and finished third.

Outsider Wins.

Champagne Bay won from Blue Star, Pride of Tsingtao and Fortune Bay, the last named being outclassed. I don't know whether Mr. Pan found Blue Star difficult to handle early on or whether he kept him back for a big effort in the straight, but the pony did not impress me over the first six furlongs. He came along with a beautiful rush in the straight and got within a neck of Champagne Bay, but if Blue Star had been asked for the effort slightly earlier, I think he might have won. Pride of Tsingtao ran very well over the first seven furlongs, but when asked for the final rush after the Distance Post had been passed, he did not respond.

The Crook Wins Again.

The Crook's victory in the last race was not unexpected although full marks must be given to the jockey for his handling of the favourite. The race was very open and with twenty-one starters there was a good deal of scrambling for the lead in the first three furlongs. However, by the time the Rock was reached the vanguard had boiled down to about four, and of these, Devon, The Crook, Buchanan and City of Shanghai were prominent. They fought it out in the home run and Mr. de Roza brought his mount along beautifully to win. Devon and City of Shanghai were very close to the winner.

The Record.

Gleneagles' record run in the opening race is 4/5th of a second better than his previous record for the same distance. Gay Crusader, of whom very much was expected, made the pace, but when the straight was reached, he was spent. On the other hand Bag and Baggage chose to run behind Gleneagles and his jockey was content to wait till Gleneagles got going before he set his pony in motion so as to follow him. Bag and Baggage came along beautifully in the straight and might have won from a lesser candidate than Gleneagles, but the Dunbar representative was equal to the challenge and won by half a length.

Indiana Comes In.

Mr. Noronha was responsible for a good bit of riding when he won with Indiana over a six furlong sprint for "C" Class. The pony was kept until the last furlong when he was asked for an effort and he came along with spectacular rush to deprive Helter Skelter and Mon Talisman of victory. The last named drew the last position at the start otherwise he might have won, seeing that he put up a wonderful turn of speed all the way and was actually in front when fifty yards from home, where he began to weaken. Flying Tourist led for a good bit of the way, but his weight proved too much for him. All things considered, he put up a good show.

Orlando Wins.

Orlando, for whom I predicted a win at Macao, and who then disappointed, redeemed himself on Saturday when he led all the way home in the Suffolk Handicap. "D" Class over a mile, for which he ran the excellent time of 2.04.1. The pony covered the first half mile in 58 seconds and thus established a tremendous lead, and although the last half mile was ten seconds slower, the early lead made all the difference and the pony won easily. Gold Bar managed to get within two lengths of him at the finish, but the pony was obviously not in the same class as Orlando and never looked like winning. Mr. Noronha brought in Snappy Eve to pay $31.70 to each of his supporters.

LAWN TENNIS

C.R.C. "AT HOME"

LO'S WIN OPEN MIXED DOUBLES

The Chinese Recreation Club held their annual "At Home" on Saturday, when a large gathering of sportsmen and prominent citizens were present, including the Hon. Mr. W. T. Southern and Mrs. Southern, the Hon. Sir Shou-son Chow, and Mr. Lo Cheung Shiu. Favoured with brilliant weather, the occasion proved to be a great success, members of the club entertaining the guests with marked hospitality.

In the principal attraction of the day, M. W. Lo and Miss E. Lo met Capt. Barry and Mrs. Lochner in the final of the Open Mixed Doubles Championship of the Colony, which resulted in a win for the former pair, who have thus repeated their previous successes in 1928 and 1932. Whatever expectations followers of the game entertained of a fine struggle were quickly dashed to the ground by the way the Chinese controlled the game soon after the start, and as the match progressed, they proved their superiority. At no stage did they appear to be in any danger, and eventually won by 6-3, 6-1.

Capt. Barry and Mrs. Lochner, although failing to extend the Chinese, are to be congratulated on reaching the final. As a pair they fell short of their opponent's strength, but it was also noticeable that they were not in their best form. Capt. Barry failed pretty badly at the net, where he netted repeatedly, Mrs. Lochner played soundly throughout, and her performance was the only redeeming feature of the losing side.

CRICKET 1ST DIVISION WINS FOR CRAIGENGOWER AND THE CLUB

ALLEN REID AND R. LEE IN GREAT FORM WITH THE BALL

BOWLERS HAVE THE BEST OF THE DAY

THE TWO FIRST DIVISION GAMES PLAYED ON SATURDAY BOTH RESULTED IN A DECISION. THE CLUB DEFEATED THE NAVY BY EIGHT WICKETS, AND CRAIGENGOWER ROUTED THE CIVIL SERVICE BY SEVEN WICKETS.

IT HAD BEEN HOPED THAT T. A. PEARCE WOULD BE PLAYING FOR THE CLUB SIDE, BUT WAS UNABLE TO MAKE HIS CRICKET DEBUT ON SATURDAY. IT WILL NO DOUBT BE A NOTABLE DAY IN LOCAL CRICKET ANNALS WHEN HE MAKES HIS APPEARANCE ON THE CRICKET FIELD, AND ONE CAN DO NO MORE THAN SAY THAT ALL SPORTSMEN FEEL CONFIDENT THAT HE WILL CARRY ON THE "PEARCE TRADITION" FOR SKILL, SPORTSMANSHIP AND THAT BEST-WHEN-BACK-TO-THE-WALL SPIRIT WHICH HAS ENABLED "TAM" TO TURN THE FORTUNES OF MANY A GAME.

REID TAKES SEVEN WICKETS FOR 21

Allen Reid's seven for 21 was the outstanding performance with the ball, and it, Lee also had a good afternoon with 5 for 18. E. A. Lee, 53, O. E. C. Martin, 43, and H. P. Lam, 42, were the highest scorers in Division I, but the highest innings of the day was L. D. Kilbee's 82, for the Club II.

In the Second Division Craigen-gower were again winners, beating the Civil Service by seven wickets, while the Club beat the Navy by six wickets.

In friendly games the Finchers were in favour for K.C.C. with the bat against I.L.C. "E.C." made 63 and E.F. made 45, while A. A. Bujahia played a good knock of 38 for the latter.

1ST DIVISION

C.C.C. v. C.S.C.

At Happy Valley, the Craigen-gower Cricket Club easily beat the Civil Service Cricket Club by 7 wickets. R. Lee took five wickets for 18 runs, Omar and Hubbard supporting him with a pair each. H. P. Lam, Gittins and E. A. Lee, all found runs getting fairly easy and the first two won the match off their own bats.

INTERPORT TEAM DISAPPOINTS

could score, the Chinese managed to net two more goals and thus lead by four clear goals with ten minutes to go before the interval. The pace slackened considerably after this and the game was robbed of a good deal of its interest by this reverse against the Colony's side. However, just before the interval a penalty was awarded to the Hong Kong team and Suen Kam Sun scored after a second spot kick, the goal keeper moving for the first kick, with which Suen missed.

At the interval the score was 4-1 against the Interports. After the resumption of play, the Interports played better football, benefiting by their earlier experience as a team. They held down the Chinese in this half although Tam sent in a shot which beat Rodgers but which struck the upright and rebounded into play. A penalty was awarded against the Chinese, but Suen who took the kick failed to score. He redeemed himself however, shortly afterwards, by sending in a stinging shot which left Lim, the Chinese custodian, standing.

The teams were as follows:—
Interport XI:—Rodger, Mullane, Lau Mau, Bliss, Pardee, Duncan, Cheng Sui Hong, Wong Mee Shun, Howe, Suen Kam Sun and Baldry.
Chinese XI:—Lim Thin Chan; Leung In Chan, Ho Cho Yin; Lai Kwok Chiu, Wong Sui Wa, Tong Kwan; Tang Kwong Sum, Mak So, Tam Kong Pak, Ip Pak Wah and Li Shek Yau.

ST. JOSEPH'S v. RECREIO

This game was played in King's Park before a comparatively small crowd and the result, as generally anticipated, was a win for St. Joseph's. The Recreio team played up quite well during the first fifteen minutes, but then the pace began to fall and after a while when B. Gosano had opened the scoring for St. Joseph's, play was mostly confined in the Recreio's half. B. Gosano added a second goal before the interval.

After crossing over, the Recreio team made a big effort to equalise, but to no avail as the Saints' defence was very strong. A. V. Gosano added a third goal for the College team and before the end Costa put in the fourth goal for the College who thus emerge victorious by four goals to nil.

The winners did not show the same speed and enterprise as they did against the Athletics a week before, but they were much better than the Recreio and fully deserved their victory. The Gosano brothers were to the fore through out.

SECOND DIVISION

ARTILLERY v. NAVY

Playing at Sookunpoo, the soldiers beat the Navy by two clear goals. The first half of the match was very even and at one stage it looked as though the Navy would win. A penalty was awarded against them in the first half, but this the goalkeeper saved and the half time arrived with the score sheet blank.

In the second half, the Gunners had slightly the better of the play and Snooks opened the scoring for them following a good pass by Greenhalgh. Hardy added a second goal before the end.

SOUTH CHINA v. LINCOLNS

Playing without their star centre forward, Pan Ka Ping, the Chinese team went down to the Lincolns to the tune of three clear goals. They held their own in the first half, but gave the soldiers the lead which the Chinese tried hard to equalise. At half time, the soldiers were one goal ahead.

In the second half the soldiers were the superior team and "Hocquard" who incidentally scored from the penalty, added a further goal for the soldiers while just before the final whistle Barnes added a third.

TSUNG TSIN v. EASTERN

Eastern have yet to win their first match this season and on Saturday they went under to the Tsung Tsin by the tune of five goals to one. The winners were far the better of the two teams and there never was any doubt as to the result from the very start. The

ENGLISH RUGBY

RESULTS OF SATURDAY'S MATCHES

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 19.

RUGBY matches played at home on Saturday resulted as follows:—

Durham	11	Northumberland	3
Yorkshire	17	Lancashire	8
Bath	3	Gloucester	0
Blackheath	17	Cambridge U.	0
Devonport S.	5	Bristol	10
Guy's H.	15	Birkenhead P.	10
Harlequins	5	Oxford U.	0
Leicester	5	O.M.T.	27
Northampton	14	Coventry	5

score at the interval was three to one in favour of Tsung Tsin and two more goals were added for them in the second half.

KOWLOON v. BORDERERS

The Borderers had little difficulty in annexing full points when they visited Kowloon and they returned home with a five to two victory over the civilians. The opening minutes of the play provided them with two goals and they kept up the advantage all the way. The Kowloon forwards were kept in check by the Borderers halves and backs and never looked very dangerous. The score of 5-2 is a fair indication of the disparity between the sides.

ATHLETIC v. EWO

These two Chinese teams put up a huge struggle for the points at Happy Valley and there was a large gathering of supporters of both teams.

In the first half, the Ewo side played on the defensive, under heavy pressure from the Athletics forwards who were eventually rewarded with a goal. The Ewo side equalised through a penalty and excitement ran high among the supporters of the team. In the second half, rough play spoiled what would have been an otherwise interesting game. Yeung Kam Po scored for the Athletics to earn full points for them.

THIRD DIVISION

SOUTH CHINA v. ST. JOSEPH'S

The league leaders, St. Joseph's suffered their first defeat on Saturday, going down unexpectedly to South China, who scored twice to the leader's single goal. The Chinese scored two goals early on and although the College team tried hard to equalise they were unable to do so before the interval. After the interval Dalgado reduced the lead by a beautiful shot, but when the final whistle arrived they were still a goal in arrears.

YORKSHIREMEN AT THE K.B.G.C.

TENNIS AND BOWLS TOURNEY

HONOURS, (MORE OR LESS) EVENLY DIVIDED

Kowloon Bowling Green Club is noted for the sportsmanship and good-fellowship of its members. In entertaining the Society of Yorkshiremen on Saturday afternoon, when a bowls match and a tennis match were played, the Club was of course on its mettle, and determined not to be out-done, even by Yorkshiremen, whose gift for hospitality is proverbial.

Favoured by ideal weather the event proved extremely enjoyable to both hosts and visitors.

It is true that the former won the bowls match quite easily—by 105 shots to 51, but the visitors made amends on the tennis court, taking 48 games to 60. Each set consisted of eight games.

The Secretary's Welcome.

After the matches the players foregathered at the Club House where Mr. J. G. Meyer, who doubles the roles of Secretary of both the Yorkshiremen's Society and the Bowling Green Club, addressed the gathering. He said:—
"I feel like Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde to-day and I hope you'll excuse my little bit of facetiousness and not misconstrue it as fooling on my part if I give you a brief history of to-day's matches. It was like this. The Secretary of the Yorkshire Society was anxious to arrange a return match with the Club and he approached the Secretary of the Club who promised to mention it to the Committee who were in favour of the idea. The Secretary was instructed to write to the Secretary of the Society inviting them to send a team over. The Society asked their Secretary to make all the necessary arrangements and the Club did pretty much the same. So the two secretaries met when I was shaving one morning, and here we are."

"I am sure we have all had a very enjoyable afternoon and on your behalf I would like to thank the Club for the use of their greens. I think I may say that last year's match and to-day's matches have been a great success, and we hope that the Bowling Green Club will ask Mr. Shaw to present Souvenir Spoons to all those of the Kowloon Bowling Green Club who have been playing to-day, and also to Mrs. Hogbin, the President's wife."

In conclusion Mr. Meyer said:—
"Although Mr. J. Scott-Harston, Vice-President of the Society, (appliance) is unable to be present, he has sent us a substantial cheque towards the expenses for the afternoon's entertainment. (Applause)"

Bowls for Grouching!

Mr. E. W. L. Hogbin, President of the K.B.G.C., said in reply:—
"Mr. Meyer, Ladies and Gentlemen—I am sure that we all thank the Society of Yorkshiremen for their very kind hospitality this afternoon, and for the very good games they have given us. Being primarily a Bowling Club it is very pleasing to us to see so many Yorkshiremen playing 'ye ancient game', but you know Yorkshiremen start with a certain advantage over other people when they take up the game of bowls, for it is axiomatic that we have 'Croquet' for cheating and 'Bowls' for grousing! and as you all know Yorkshire is full of grouse. (Cl. Oh!) I am very pleased that Mr. Meyer refrained from speaking in the Yorkshire dialect, because a little while ago, we had a dinner here and during the musical programme which followed our horrible Secretary, Joe Meyer, sang us a song, something about 'Ilkka moor taht 'at', and I never understood a single word he said."

"Still, despite their awful dialect, I am sure we all vote our Yorkshire friends 'jolly good fellows' and 'jolly good company too' and so I will now ask my wife to present them all with spoons to remind them of the very happy time we have spent together this afternoon." (Applause.)

PHOSFERINE

CHAMPION OOI LEONG TEIK writes:—

"It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to testify to the benefit I have received by taking Phosferine during my training for the 1932 Malayan Weight-Lifting Championships.

As I had to reduce some seven or eight pounds off my normal bodyweight in order to enable me to compete in the 6-stone class, I had to go into very strenuous training, and with the help of Phosferine, I not only won the championship of that class, but also the individual Championship, and, in addition I broke a British Record.

I therefore have no hesitation in recommending Phosferine to any physical culturist or athlete, whether he be in ordinary training or preparing for a competition, as it

G.A. HARRIMAN'S REPORT

MARKET ON THE EASY SIDE

Although the market has been on the easy side throughout the week, business has been fairly active more especially towards the latter part of the week when there was quite a substantial recovery and trading was very brisk once again.
